

GCI Liberty Completes Issuance of $325 million Offering of New Senior Notes due 2024

June 6, 2019

ENGLEWOOD, Colo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 6, 2019-- GCI Liberty, Inc. (Nasdaq: GLIBA, GLIBP) announced today that its wholly-owned subsidiary, GCI, LLC (the "Issuer") has completed the previously announced sale to initial purchasers in a private offering of $325 million of new 6.625% senior notes due 2024 (the "2024 Notes"). The 2024 Notes are unsecured obligations of the Issuer. The net proceeds of the offering, together with cash on hand, will be used to fund the redemption of the Issuer's $325 million aggregate outstanding principal amount of 6.75% Senior Notes due 2021 (the "2021 Notes"), which are callable at par. In accordance with the indenture governing the 2021 Notes, the Issuer has issued an irrevocable notice of redemption with respect to all outstanding 2021 Notes. The redemption date is July 6, 2019.

The offering was made pursuant to an exemption under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). The initial purchasers offered the 2024 Notes only to persons reasonably believed to be Qualified Institutional Buyers as permitted under Rule 144A of the Securities Act, or outside the United States to certain persons in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. The 2024 Notes were not registered under the Securities Act or applicable state securities laws and may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration under such laws or applicable exemptions from such registration requirements.

This press release is for informational purposes only and does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy the 2024 Notes, nor shall there be any sales of 2024 Notes in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.
